Code of Conduct for Club Members

Bromsgrove & District Indoor Bowling Club is committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all members, ensuring a positive and enjoyable experience for all. Members, coaches, staff, parents and guests should always, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Members are encouraged to always be open and to share concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club (see noticeboard for advice and policy).

As a member of Bromsgrove & District Indoor Bowling Club, you are expected to abide by the following codes of practice:

Respect all players, coaches, officials, volunteers, visitors and spectators. Treat everyone with dignity and respect.

Participate in the right spirit, the sport of bowls should be fun at all levels.

Take reasonable measures to keep yourself and others safe.

Promote the sport in the best positive light through your actions and behaviour.

Understand and abide by the rules/regulations/etiquette of the sport and any additional competition rules.

Abide by the club rules, policies and regulations.

Adhere to safeguarding and equality policies to foster a safe and inclusive culture and environment for participation.

Recognise good play by teammates and opponents.

Do not smoke in the building we have a smoking shelter outside.

Remember – we have volunteers within the club on the Board of Directors, Management Committee and on our coaching team. Their contribution to the club is vital to ensure we operate. Be respectful and courteous.

Communicate with the club, coaches your team in circumstances where you are going to be late especially when playing in competitions.

Members must wear suitable footwear on the green – see club rules.

Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated.

Encourage everyone to enjoy playing bowls, remember we all have different motivations for participating. Speak to someone if you are concerned that the code is being broken.
